Industrial symposium

With a lunch symposium you may present your interesting topics with selected speakers to your audience and therefore participate actively in the organisation of the scientific programme.

The topics have to be confirmed by the conference administration and adjusted to the scientific programme. The description of the symposium, including the details of the invited speakers needs to be handed in until the latest of 1 December 2022 to Conventus GmbH.

The symposium is scheduled during the lunch break for one of the following time slots:

- 01 June 2023 from 12.30-13.30 hrs
- 02 June 2023 from 12.30-13.30 hrs

There will be no scientific programme at the same time.

Receiving the following benefits

- Allocation of the lecture room
- Allocation of the standard conference equipment (e.g. lectern, table with microphone, screen, projector, laser pointer etc.; additional equipment on request)
- Supervision by a technician during the symposium
- Explicit mention and acknowledgement in the conference programme, as well as on the conference homepage
- Signposting to the room

Speakers registration for the conference is free.

General terms and conditions

4. Dismantling

The coordinator shall clear the assigned room and surrender all rented furnishings according to the agreed time schedule. Damaged areas or furnishings will be cleaned and repaired at the coordinator's cost. Upon failure to provide clearance duly in time, clearance will be arranged at the coordinator's cost. The Coordinator will be liable for damage actually occurred.

5. Terms of payment

The coordinator will pay remuneration fourteen days from receipt of an invoice at the latest, creditable to the bank account stated on the invoice.

6. Cancellation policy

For reasons of existing third-party commitments, special arrangement cannot be made. The following cancellation fees will be charged plus legal VAT:

Cancellation up to 11 January 2023: 50% of total sum,

Cancellation from 12 January 2023: 100% of total sum.

Notice of cancellation must be served in writing.

7. Liability

The coordinator will be held liable for any damage caused by him, his staff, authorized representatives or visitors. Conventus will refuse liability, except in the case of damage due to deliberate action or gross negligence by Conventus, its authorized representatives or staff. This will not include damages in the form of harm to life, physical injury or harm to health, as well as damages resulting from the breach of a cardinal obligation.

8. No competing event

The exhibitor agrees to refrain from staging other events, whether on or beyond the conference site, in order to prevent competition with the event

9. General legal regulations

Both parties declare these terms of contract to be the sole and entire understanding with no further supplementary or secondary agreement in force between them. General terms and conditions

Terms of contract for exhibition area

1. Conclusion of contract

The exhibitor accepts an offer for exhibition by mailing the appropriate form.

2. Technical and organizational conditions of participation

As long as an event is in progress, the exhibitor will be subject to the house rules of the venue and related stipulations issued by Conventus on any part of the grounds. The exhibitor agrees to conceptually devise and provide an on-site presentation of his exhibition stand in a manner that will not obstruct the view of other exhibition stands in the immediate surroundings or nearby. Notably, no walls may be built around a standalone booth. A standalone booth is a section of stand area that does not directly border with another stand.

The exhibitor is obliged to utilize the assigned stand for the duration of the event and maintain adequate stand personnel. Advertising of any kind will not be allowed, unless performed within the loaned stand area to promote the exhibitor's own business or products manufactured or sold by him. You are prohibited from exchanging allocated stand space with another exhibitor and from the partial or complete transfer of your stand to a third party, unless you have obtained the customer's / host's prior written consent. Other items such as electric power, additional equipment or furniture can be made available on request.

The exhibition area is allocated by or in coordination with Conventus. The day, on which this exhibitor and sponsor information sheet is mailed will be the starting day for registrations. Advance reservation is possible. The Exhibitor will provide his own decoration.

3. Terms of payment

Stand rentals must be credited in the full amount within fourteen days from receipt of an invoice to the account stated on the invoice. Other stand furnishings, which are ordered up to one month before commencement of the event or are re-ordered on-site, will be charged following the event.

4. Cancellation policy

For reasons of existing third-party commitments, special arrangement cannot be made. The following cancellation fees will be charged plus legal VAT:

Cancellation up to 11 January 2023: 50% of total sum,

Cancellation from 12 January 2023: 100% of total sum.

Notice of cancellation must be served in writing. It will not be regarded as a new lease arrangement if unused space is allocated to another exhibitor without the customer / host receiving further income from a subsequent new lease of the moved company's originally attributed space due to optical reasons occurring because of the withdrawal of exhibitors.

If the customer / host is, for any reason that has occurred through none of his or the exhibitor's fault, unable to hold the exhibition, he will not be entitled to claim compensation or remission of stand rentals paid or payable.

5. Liability

The exhibitor will be held liable for any personal or material damage caused by him, his legal representatives or authorized agents whether through his or their own fault or not. In particular, liability will include damage to structural parts of the administration building. The organizer will assume no liability for damage, unless shown to be due to deliberate action or gross negligence by him, his authorized representatives or staff. This will not include damages arising in the form of harm to life, physical injury or harm to health, as well as damages resulting from the breach of a cardinal obligation.

In particular, the organizer will not be liable for damages caused by a third party or force majeure.

6. No competing event

The exhibitor agrees to refrain from staging other events, whether on or beyond the conference site, in order to prevent competition with the event.

Terms of contract for advertising in printed materials

1. Conclusion of contract

By using the enclosed form, the Advertiser will be deemed to have accepted an offer for advertising in printed materials as specified below.

2. Technical information

Please observe the following criteria for your adverts/logos:

- integrated advertisement images:
 - 4c and grayscale: minimum resolution of 300 ppi (for pixel graphics and non-interpolated)
 - B/W or line graphic: minimum resolution of 900 ppi (non-interpolated)
 - preferably no adverts which have been completely compiled in a single image processing programme
- No RGB data (e.g. graphs, scripts, pictures)
- No use of special colours
- Use only embedded scripts
- Plus 3mm of trim cut margin
- Use only trim cut marks as printing aids
- Exposable (printable) standard PDF or PDF X3

General terms and conditions

3. Artwork design

The advertiser will submit to Conventus an artwork draft of his printed advert material until 3 weeks before printing programme at the latest. Conventus will approve such artwork drafts, unless a printed material design is found to conflict with the nature of an event in terms of design style, content or the product being advertised. Upon failure to provide delivery by the time of printing, the advertiser will forfeit his right to claim fulfilment of the contract by the Organizer. Notwithstanding this, the agreed amount will still be charged.

4. Extras and provisions

Print-ready files compiled to meet the specifications of a designated printing shop must be delivered to Conventus or such designated printing shop according to the established time schedule. Advertisements will be published as such without any by-notes.

5. Terms of payment

Invoicing will be on completion of a print medium. A payable amount must be fully settled not later than fourteen days from receipt of the invoice.

6. Cancellation policy

For reasons of existing third-party commitments, special arrangements cannot be made. The following cancellation fee will be charged plus legal VAT:

Cancellation two months or less before printing of printed matter: 100% of total sum.

7. General legal provisions

Both parties declare these terms of contract to be the sole and entire understanding with no further supplementary or secondary agreement in force between them. Any amendment or supplement to these terms of contract shall be in writing in order to be effective. This will also apply in the event of cancellation of this written form requirement. Should individual regulations of the terms of contract be or become invalid, the remaining regulations shall continue in full force and effect.
